Montana Community Foundation Awards More Than $365,000 in Scholarships to Montana Students

Helena, Mont., October 8, 2015 – The Montana Community Foundation (MCF) awarded a grand total of $365,006 in scholarships to 154 Montana students for the 2015-16 academic year. This is approximately $40,000 more than the amount awarded in the 2014-15 academic year.

The scholarships range in size from $500 to $5,000 and were awarded through a competitive application process. Many of the scholarships are renewable, offering financial support to students for multiple years. These scholarships have assisted Montana students attend 32 different colleges and universities.

“It was another great year for Montana students,” said Mary Rutherford, MCF President and Chief Executive Officer. “Our scholarship program continues to grow through the generosity of our donors and we’re so pleased to award more money this year to the deserving recipients. Helping these students achieve their academic goals is an incredibly important part of how MCF is ensuring Montana’s future.”

The scholarship fund exists because of generous individuals and organizations, each of whom have made the commitment to support education and the future of Montana.

A wide range of scholarships are available with a variety of qualifications. Most scholarship applications are available beginning January 1 of each year, and both traditional and non-traditional Montana students are encouraged to apply.

For more information and to learn how you can contribute to these scholarships or begin a scholarship fund of your own, visit www.mtcf.org or call (406) 443-8313, and find us on Facebook.
