Montana Community Foundation Grants more than $90,000 in June

Helena, Mont., (July 21, 2014) – The Montana Community Foundation (MCF) granted more than $90,000 in June to support its mission to cultivate a culture of giving so Montana communities can flourish. The grants made benefit a diverse range of nonprofits including the Boy Scouts of America – Montana Council, Custer County Art & Heritage Center, Montana Conservation Corps, Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship, Recycle Eureka, Inc., Yellowstone Boys & Girls Ranch and others. Funding will support scholarships, literacy, building maintenance, purchasing healthy snacks for children and more.

“There is no doubt the ‘Montana’ in Montana Community Foundation is well represented in the grants made this June,” said Mary Rutherford, MCF Chief Executive Officer. “From large communities and well-known organizations like the YWCA of Billings, to small towns with important projects like the museum in Wolf Point, MCF is working with Montanans for the benefit of Montana. Regardless of where the community is or what charitable cause donors are passionate about, we are here to promote and facilitate philanthropy in Big Sky Country.”

In 2014 alone, the Montana Community Foundation has granted more than $720,000 to nonprofits and other worthy causes throughout the state.
